MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: IG Meeting on US Participation in the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA), 17 January 1983

1. Meeting Particulars. NIO/AI Hans Heymann represented the DCI/CIA and was accompanied by [redacted] DDI/OGI, and myself. The meeting was chaired by Ambassador-At-Large Richard Kennedy and was the sixth IG meeting on the subject since the US walkout of the IAEA last September.

2. Essence of the IG Draft Report to President. Ambassador Kennedy began with a plea for consensus on the the draft IG report to the President on the resumption of US participation in the IAEA. Kennedy said that the report was not a strategy for "going back" to the IAEA, nor was it supposed to consider the timing of the resumption of US participation. The report merely was intended to inform the President that the IAEA was critical to US security interests.
